Directions:

1. Take your Barely Banana CS and fold it at the 4 ¼" mark to make up your card. Sponge it with some Pumpkin Pie Classic ink.
2. Take your Bashful Blue CS and sponge it with some Tempting Turquoise ink.
3. Take your Green Gable CS and ink it with some Old Olive Classic ink. Cut a wavy pattern along the top, and then create a fringe on the 5 ¼" length of both pieces. Set aside.
4. Stamp the whole egg on to a scrap of Barely Banana CS and a scrap of Bashful Blue CS. You will stamp on the Barely Banana with some Pumpkin Pie Classic ink, and on the Bashful Blue with some Tempting Turquoise Classic ink.
5. Stamp the Zig Zag stamp in the center of each egg with the appropriate Classic ink.
6. Stamp the flower pattern stamp on the Bashful Blue CS egg with Tempting Turquoise Classic ink, and stamp the open circles stamp over the Barely Banana CS egg using Pumpkin Pie Classic ink.
7. Cut out each egg, and then cut them in half at the zig zag line, discarding the center. Sponge the edges of each egg half with the same colors you used to stamp them. Color the open circles on each egg with a white color pencil.
8. Stamp the three chicks out on Whisper White CS with your Basic Black ink. With a wedge of Stamping Sponge and your So Saffron and Pumpkin Pie Classic ink, color the birds with sponging. Color the beaks in with your Pumpkin Pie Marker. Cut the birds out.
9. Glue the birds to the egg shells.
10. Punch out three flowers from your Pretty in Pink CS and sponge the edges with Melon Mambo Classic ink. With your Empresser Stylus and the foam mat from your Mat Pack, push in the center of each flower to form a cup. Stick it to the corner of each bird. Add a white dot using your Signo White gel pen. With your 2-way glue pen and your Dazzling Diamonds glitter, glitter up the edge of the zig zag.

11. Not stick the first layer of grass to your Bashful Blue CS with your Tombow multi purpose adhesive. With two Stampin' Dimensionals each, stick the birds down over the first layer of grass.
12. Stick the second layer of grass over the chicks and glue down using your Tombow multi purpose adhesive.
13. Take some Whisper White CS scraps and cut out some free-hand clouds. Stick them to the Bashful Blue CS with some Stampin' Dimensionals.
14. Stick the Bashful Blue CS to the Barely Banana card base. Add some decorative lives with your Black Stampin' Write marker. You are done!
